

Administrator

The administrator of the personal data is the University of Wrocław with its seat at pl. Uniwersytecki 1, 50-137 Wrocław, hereinafter referred to as the Administrator or UWr.

Data Protection Officer (DPO)

The controller has appointed a Data Protection Officer who can be contacted via email: 71 375 26 04, via email: jod@uwr.edu.pl or by mail to the address: pl. Uniwersytecki 1, 50-137 Wrocław.

The DPO can be contacted on all matters concerning the processing of personal data by the University of Wrocław.

Purposes and legal basis for processing

You are a doctoral student who is in a difficult and temporary social and living situation and you provide us with your personal information voluntarily in order to apply for financial support. The basis for the processing of personal data is the consent to process personal data (Article 6, section 1, letter a) GDPR - for ordinary data and Article 9, section 2, letter a) GDPR - for special categories of data, including health data).

The Administrator, if necessary, will also process your data if the processing is necessary for purposes arising from the legitimate interests pursued by the Administrator.

Personal data of doctoral students who receive financial support will be processed in order to fulfill a legal obligation incumbent on the Administrator (Article 6, section 1, letter c) of the GDPR) or in connection with the fact that the processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of public authority entrusted to the Administrator (Article 6, section 1, letter e) of the GDPR).

Data retention period

Your data provided in the application and processed on the basis of your consent will be processed for the period necessary to fulfill the purpose for which it was collected.

In the case of granting you a support, your data will be processed for the period resulting from the Administrator's legal obligation (Article 6, section 1, letter c) of the GDPR), and thereafter for archival purposes under the provisions of the Act of 14 July 1983 on the national archival resource and archives.

Recipients of data

Access to your personal data will be granted to authorised employees of the Administrator and authorised representatives of the UWr Doctoral Student Self-Government.

Recipients of your personal data may be:

- public authorities and entities performing public tasks or acting on behalf of public authorities, to the extent and for the purposes that result from the provisions of generally applicable law;
- entities to which the Administrator will commission certain activities that involve the processing of personal data.

Rights related to processing

You have the right to access the content of your data and, subject to applicable law, the right to rectify, delete and restrict processing.

You also have the right to withdraw your consent to the processing of personal data. You can withdraw your consent at any time, including by sending an email to: sos.phd@uwr.edu.pl. Withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of processing carried out on the basis of consent before its withdrawal and the lawfulness of processing carried out on the basis of Article 6, section 1, letters c) and e) of the GDPR. If you consider that the processing of personal data violates the law, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the President of the Office for Personal Data Protection.

Other information:

Decisions on your case will not be made by automated means, and data will not be subject to profiling. The Administrator does not intend to transfer your personal data outside the European Economic Area.

Obligation to provide data and the consequence of not providing data

Provision of data is necessary for the submission and processing of an application for the provision of financial support to doctoral students who find themselves in a difficult and temporary living situation, and to determine their needs related to a difficult and temporary social and living situation.

Failure to provide data will prevent us from learning about your needs and deciding on possible financial support.
